

The David Cooper public memorial is tomorrow, Thursday 14 June.

The memorial will commence at 12:30pm sharp. Over 1,000 people are expected to attend this event. Due to significant road works on George Street and potential delays, please allow plenty of time to travel and be seated. Public transport is recommended.

ABOUT THIS EVENT

Time: Thursday 14 June 2018 • 12:30pm – 2:00pm, followed by afternoon tea.

Address: Sydney Town Hall, 483 George St, Sydney, NSW 2000

GETTING THERE

Parking

There is limited street parking in the CBD. Patrons should use the car parking available at a number of parking stations close by.

The two car parks nearest to Sydney Town Hall are:

QVB Parking Phone (02) 9267 1627. Entry and exit via York Street.

St Andrews House - Town Hall Car Park Phone 1800 727 546. 464 Kent Street, Sydney NSW 2000.

The location of these and other car parks in the city can be found by downloading City Car Park Locations PDF.

Public Transport

Buses and trains travel direct to Sydney Town Hall. For trip planning, maps and ticket info visit transportnsw.info or call 131 500. For further information and links to timetables, maps and travel advice for residents and visitors, go to the City of Sydney's public transport information page.

ACCESSIBILITY

The accessible entrance to the building is via the Druitt street entrance (opposite the Queen Victoria Building). All the venues within the building can be reached by an accessible path of travel. If you require assistance when visiting the building, please contact Town Hall to discuss your requirements on 02 9265 9282.

Accessible unisex toilet facilities are available on each publicly accessible floor of the building.

QUESTIONS ABOUT THIS EVENT?

Contact Estelle Jones at community@kirby.unsw.edu.au or +61 2 9385 0920 (on the day).

LIVE STREAM

If you can no longer attend, you can follow a live stream of the event at kirby.unsw.edu.au/dclivestream.